

Dr Anca C. Yallop is Senior Lecturer in Business Strategy and Interim Deputy Head of Department of International Business, Strategy & Entrepreneurship at the AUT Business School, Auckland University of Technology, New Zealand. She holds a PhD in Marketing (Romania) and a second PhD in Marketing Research Ethics (New Zealand). Prior to her appointment at AUT, Anca was Senior Lecturer in Marketing at the Winchester Business School, University of Winchester, UK. Anca specializes in insight management, data ethics, and business strategy. She has over a decade of teaching experience in higher education and several years' experience working in marketing and research roles in organisations across a diverse range of sectors internationally. Her programme of research lies at the intersection of responsible and ethical management and strategic business insights, applied to different context and sectors. Her research appeared in leading journals including International Journal of Market Research; Journal of Consumer Marketing; Leisure Studies; Journal of Information, Communication and Ethics in Society; Online Information Review; World Leisure Journal; International Journal of Culture, Tourism and Hospitality Research. Anca was Guest Editor of a special issue of the International Journal of Market Research in market research history, and currently serves as Associate Editor of the same journal. She is also the recipient of the 2020 Emerald Literati Outstanding Paper Award, and 2020 Reviewer of the Year Award conferred by the International Journal of Market Research and Market Research Society, UK.