

Dr. Amir Hasnaoui is an Associate Professor at Excelia Business School, a scholar in the disciplines of Finance and Information Systems, with a strategic emphasis on the domains of sustainable development and financial technology. He was conferred a Ph.D. by Télécom Ecole de Management in conjunction with Université d'Evry, Val d'Essonne, France.

In addition, he is accredited as a Certified Auditor in IT (CAIT) by CPA International, which enhances his proficiency in finance, regulatory compliance, and information systems management. Since assuming leadership of the Finance, Accounting, and IS Department in 2013 at Excelia Business School, Dr. Hasnaoui has made substantial contributions to pedagogy and scholarly research. His academic tenure is marked by a robust record of research, instruction, and active participation as an editorial board member for prestigious scientific journals and international conferences. He further contributes to the academic community as an Associate Editor for the Journal of Risk Finance and the Review of Accounting and Finance.