Faculty of Business Dean's Message

Associated Prof.
Valentin TOADER, PhD
Faculty of Business Dean
valentin.toader@ubbcluj.ro

"The Faculty of Business is the first higher education institution to offer business studies in Romania, being established in 1994 with the support of Nottingham Trent University, Athens University of Economics and Business and Technical University of Lisbon.

The Faculty of Business provides its students with the knowledge and skills necessary for a successful career in business, as well as the ability for continuous self-improvement.

The economic-social life proves us that the specializations offered by our faculty are in-increasing demand. Our graduates and even our students are among those who can easily find a job or initiate a business. Business education represents the future."

Mission. Co-creation, together with our business, public and NGO partners of knowledge, attitudes and skills which genuinely enhances the impact of educational, research and entrepreneurial initiatives.

Vision. To foster financial & intellectual independence for people of all ages with entrepreneurial DNA.

We have this vision because financial independence values less without intellectual independence. We do not want to be focused only on wealth; we want people to also be focused on the meaning of their activity. These two dimensions leads to real, sustainable development that allows people to respond to the opportunities of their future.

Values.

Education 360°. Education is a social construction where the community of interest (students, professors, administrative personnel, business community, local community, NGO's, political establishment, national and international relevant institutions... and the list is open) covering various frequencies of reality, co-create the future. We want to integrate as many aspirations as we can in... partnership.

Entrepreneurship. Education needs to be useful, to offer tools and wings for independent students. The courage to implement small ideas that lead to high achievements, the thrill of solving the unsolvable problems, the timid beginning, the failure full of meaning, the sweetness of success, all of this are... priceless.

Innovation. Incrementally, we pursue the improvement of what we are doing, day by day, class by class, article by article, and project by project. Education means playing with "Lego pieces," and in this game the number of pieces is important, the examples are important, the uninhibited variety of combinations and the unique differentiation it offer is... vital.

Diversity & multiculturalism.

Business education should offer everybody transparent access to educational opportunities.

Moreover, learning should incorporate as many cases, books, values, and perspective positioned in as many cultural contexts as possible. The way we are teaching/learning is profoundly influenced by our cultural heritage and we want to extend ourselves to an... ethical & international identity.

Life-long learning. Education does not stop after your bachelor degree, after your master or even PhD degree. It does not stop after your first job or even after your fulminant success, but goes on forever, helping us to provide meaning to our life, and elevate the threshold of our... perception.

Community of Opportunity.

Developing a long-lasting culture creates opportunity for all. Developing a sustainable network of students & alumni amplifies the transition from education to practice and gives birth to a community that values helping each other and enable each other as the ultimate... talent scouts.

Bogdan DIDA Alumnus BA bachelor program, 2010-2013 Audit manager at PwC, NZ

YouTube testimonial Ro. https://youtu.be/Uy2evdSnhoA

"What brings uniqueness to the faculty? I think it is the accent placed on the practical and commercial parts. This helped me a lot in the industry I currently work in. The funniest memory of my study years is also the most important one. During the first weeks, at a football match between teachers and students, I had a heated argument with a person I thought to be a master student, just to find out that he is my finance teacher. The same teacher, who has strongly influenced my professional career by forcing me to participate in the competition for an internship in a multinational financial service. Seven years afterward, I still work for the same company, just in a different management position, and in a slightly far away country."

Mihaela POPA Alumna BA bachelor program, 2009-2012

Training Project Manager at Global Wind Organization, DK

YouTube testimonial Ro. https://youtu.be/N96lhgJpnqc

"I am happily thinking about my years as a student and the years I have spent at the Faculty of Business. I have been accepted to the bachelor program, as a result of winning an essay contest, by describing my vision on what being a leader means. Maybe not by chance, but my favorite experience was the leadership course, where we explored this subject in detail. After other learning experiences, I ended up working in an international environment, in Denmark, in developing leaders and cultural change.

I think a university is just a building unless you build a community around it. I liked the community at the Faculty of Business because I have always met openness and support from my colleagues and teachers. From open discussions during seminars to international cooperation and basketball games, it has all formed me professionally."

Claudiu PUŞCAŞ Alumnus BA bachelor program, 2012-2015

Co-Owner of Powwow & Marketing Account Manager, Loopaa, RO YouTube testimonial Ro. https://youtu.be/QCSfCJ4oIzO

"Hello! I am Claudiu and I have been a marketer for the past 5 years. In 2015, I have graduated from the Business Administration program.

The biggest advantage that the Faculty of Business has brought me is the empirical way of seeing life, an aspect that characterizes the delivery of every project.

If there would be something I could tell to young Claudiu, it would be to stop hesitating on those 231 business ideas, to just go with the flow and get surprised."

"I have completed both my bachelor and master's degrees at the Faculty of Business in Cluj-Napoca. One of the reasons why I am happy about my decision towards my studies is the fact that at the Faculty of Business you are encouraged to be creative while obtaining practical knowledge, and furthermore, have the opportunity to gain international experience with the Erasmus+ program. What I miss the most, is the encouragement from the teachers, who told me that everything is possible as long as you are determined!"

Betuel GAG Alumnus BA English bachelor program 2015-2019 Marketing Assistant, Benjamin Stevens Estate Agents, UK

YouTube testimonial Eng. https://youtu.be/OyImnR9GPXw

"The Faculty of Business taught me so many skills about public speaking, management, understanding the environment of the business, understanding customers and clients, and understanding both employers and suppliers. There are many things you will learn; many things you will explore. The one thing I really loved is the collective environment – the people there that helped me understand what the business vibe is like. This is a good opportunity for any future student and any person who wants to develop their skills. There are great teachers there, you can discuss and learn so many things. And remember: the effort you do today is the result you get tomorrow!"

Orsolya Anna MATE Alumna BA in Hospitality Services English bachelor program 2015-2019

Project Engineer at WMG, University of Warwick, UK YouTube testimonial Eng. https://youtu.be/olusbv19qKw

"Before starting my academic career, I knew I wanted to travel the world and clearly my learning experience had to be in accordance with this passion of mine. Therefore, when it came to applying for a university, I made sure the institution I was choosing was able to offer me the right opportunities. At the moment, I can say I have obtained two bachelor's degrees and an Erasmus+ semester abroad thanks to the partnerships of the Faculty of Business. All these experiences had a major impact on my personality and on the direction of my professional career. I deeply believe that when it comes to choosing a university you must make sure you will have the right support to follow your dreams and grow as a person!"

Teachers & Teaching Methods

Each teacher has a unique professional identity, a sum of strengths, a task role, or a set of task roles, specific to them, and that make them valuable in their field. This diversity of tasks comes to offer a diversity of teaching styles, in partnership with the diversity of teaching styles among students.

The roles associated to the teachers, from which we started to build are those of designer, trainer, facilitator, pedagogue, and mentor. These roles differentiate themselves based on several levels: purpose, closeness, engagement, necessary skills, objective, learning path, constantly helping a professional identity for each teacher. (See Teacher's role, page 9)

These roles depend upon the context, but also on each person's personality and comfort zone. Our aim is to ensure that these roles are covered in a flexible manner, in the best way, to be an answer to the different learning styles that the students have.

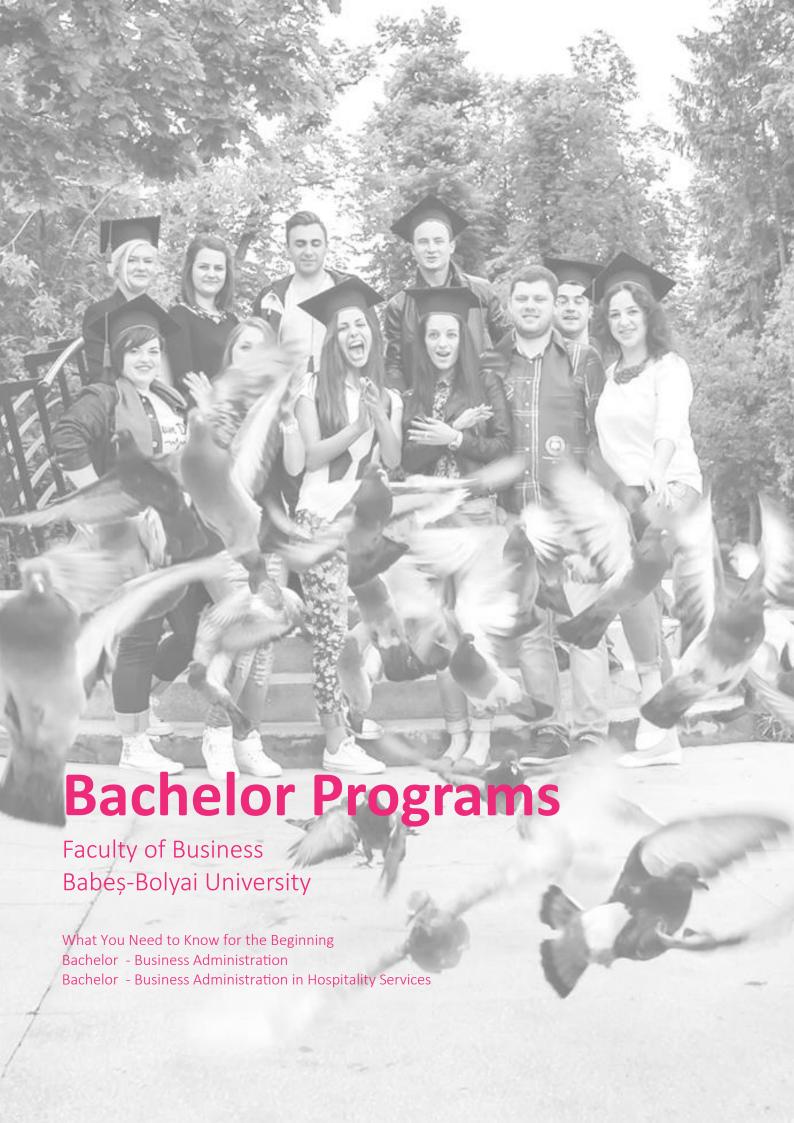

Learning styles diversity represent a challenge that we happily accept. Some students learn by getting involved, without deductions, in the class activity (active learning); some students choose to stay quiet, to gather information and opinions from colleagues, and then engage in debates (reflexive learning); other students prefer to read the materials, alongside a big mug of coffee (theoretic learning), and others activate themselves just when the learning process shows them how to use the information, attitudes, competencies from class, to gain a practical competitive advantage (pragmatic learning).

| | Designer | Coach | Facilitator | Pedagogue | Mentor |
|------------------|---------------------------------|-------------------------------------|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--|
| Purpose | Creates learning materials | Gives energy and motivates | Helps with building ideas | Instructs the participants | Guides, inspires, and helps |
| Closeness | Indirect through materials | Open, joyful, close to the group | Close to the group | Formal with large groups | Close only to some of the participants |
| Engagement | Students discover by themselves | Students are attracted | Students engage voluntarily | Participation is a formal process | Restrained participation |
| Competencies | Editing and designing | Ability to motivate | Emotional intelligence | Presentation, persuasion | Counseling and communication |
| Objective | First contact with the topic | Involvement, partnership | Connects theory with experiences | Passes knowledge | Helps with the career evolution |
| Learning path | Established by the designer | Flexible, interaction | Established by the participants | Established by the pedagogue | Established by mentor & protégé |

Bachelor Programs

What You Need to Know at the Beginning

You have been admitted at the university, so you are a "bachelor" student. This is the first level of higher education. There are other two more levels (master's and PhD) for you to discover later once you realize that learning is an ongoing process:)

There are some potential questions you may have, that we want to answer, in order for you to better understand what will be presented later: Bologna system? Which program? Why an English program?

What is the Bologna System?

The main objective of the Bologna system is to increase the mobility of personnel and students and their employment. The European system of accumulation and transfer of study credit (ECTS) is a tool of the European space of higher education, used to increase the transparency of studies and courses. The ECTS helps students travel to many countries and acquire acknowledgment of their academic qualifications and the period of studies abroad. Thanks to the ECTS, credits obtained from a higher education institution are considered for a qualification achieved in another structure.

ECTS credits represent learning based on results and the appropriate volume of work. ECTS improves the flexibility of the study programs for students. For example, courses taken as part of an Erasmus + experience (in the European Union) may be more easily recognized in the account of the courses that were supposed to be studied during the same semester in Romania.

you do not know yet the specific industry in which you want to grow, that this is the best choice.

Well intended advice...

- Please scan the documents on both sides, especially the Baccalaureate diploma, and the other study-related papers
- Scan original documents, not legalized copies
- Do not attach pictures! To scan the documents, you can use a mobile phone app, like Adobe Scan
- Scan each document in separate PDF files
- It is not complicated; you just need to be careful :)

Admission Fee & Tuition Fee

Admission Fee

The Admission fee covers the administrative process of admission to the Faculty of Business and is divided into two components:

A) registration fee, andB) processing fee

Registration fee: 200 lei
The Registration fee is valid for all specializations. Its payment is made only once, no matter how many specializations within the Faculty of Business are chosen.

Processing fee: 50 lei
This is the fee paid for the operation of submitted files. The processing fee is paid for each file/ specialization chosen.

Admission Fee Calculation

You can see below an example of calculation for the admission fee without discounts or exemptions:

registration fee = 200 lei processing fee option 1 = 50 lei processing fee option 2 = 50 lei total payment = 300 lei

Discounts

Employees and children of employees of Babeş-Bolyai University, the Central University Library, the Botanical Garden and the restaurants and cafeterias of the University, as well as the children of the teaching and auxiliary teaching staff in activity or retirees from the university and pre-university education institutions, are exempted from paying the registration fee.

For organizational and communication aspects, the processing fee is charged, a fee that is not subject to exemptions, reliefs and is not refundable.

An example of calculation for the admission fee with discounts or exemptions can be seen below:

registration fee = 200 lei processing fee option 1 = 50 lei processing fee option 2 = 50 lei total payment = 100 lei

Exemptions

Candidates orphaned by both parents and young people from the placement centers are exempted from paying the admission fee (consisting of registration fee and processing fee).

In the case of candidates from placement centers, the Senate of Babeş-Bolyai University may allocate several places without fee, granted outside the tuition fee, financed from the state budget (Admission Regulation of Babeş-Bolyai University, 2025-2026).

To benefit from these exemptions or reductions, supporting documents must be attached (certificate of employment, certificate of placement center, copies of the parents' death certificates).

Tuition Fee

The Tuition fee covers the costs of tuition during an academic year, when the student does not occupy a budgeted place.

Tuition fee is: 4300 lei

The amount of the tuition fee at the bachelor level is the same for all specializations, both in full-time education (Romanian and English) and in distance education (Romanian). The tuition fee can be paid in 4 equal installments:

Installment I: upon confirmation of the place
 Installment II: 15 December
 Installment III: 15 March

4. Installment IV: 15 May

Attention! If the confirmation fee is paid in full, a 10% discount will be received.
